Week commencing 20 June 2022

1. Decisions sought this week

Decision/direction sought

- Seeking feedback on the draft 'Implementing the GPS-HUD' document [BRF21/22051343 refers]. This is a key public-facing document that clarifies the focus of the government work Programme over the next few years.

2. Updates this week

Area of work	Update	Next steps
Homelessness Action Plan		•
Public Housing	Debt to government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Minister Woods has agreed to include several forms of housing and rent-related debt within the wider debt to government policy work [BRF21/22041297 refers].</li> </ul>	Debt to government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Subject to Minister Woods' direction, the Minister of Housing will be added to the Cabinet paper as a responsible Minister.</li> <li>Te Tūāpapa Kura Kāinga will provide Minister Woods with an aide-mémoire to update on this work in early July.</li> </ul>
Housing Supply and Affordability	Market Headwinds <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Cabinet paper Market headwinds to residential development and construction: Supporting affordable housing in build-ready developments was lodged on 16 June.</li> <li>Te Tūāpapa Kura Kāinga is working on the detailed implementation requirements for the central clearing house and fast-track process, including developing key collateral, resourcing, and finalising processes and operational policies.</li> </ul> KiwiBuild <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Cabinet paper Adjusting KiwiBuild Settings to reflect the current context was lodged on 16 June.</li> </ul>	Market Headwinds <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Cabinet paper is due to be considered at CPC on Tuesday 21 June. An aide-mémoire will be provided to Minister Woods on 20 June to support the discussion at CPC. This will include talking points on public housing targets, as well as market headwinds, so that CPC can be updated on progress in that area.</li> <li>A briefing on detailed implementation matters will be sent to Minister Woods in the week of 20 June.</li> </ul> KiwiBuild <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Cabinet paper is due to be considered at DEV on 22 June. An aide-memoire will be provided to Minister Woods on 21 June to support the discussion at DEV.</li> </ul>

Area of work	Update	Next steps
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Te Tūāpapa Kura Kāinga is working with Kāinga Ora on operational guidance/principles on allowing updated price caps to be applied to current underwrite proposals in various states of negotiation or agreement.</li> </ul> Affordable Housing Fund Minister Woods will launch the Registration of Interest (ROI) for Round One of the Affordable Rental Pathway of the Affordable Housing Fund. This is planned for next Wednesday, the 20th of July. We are working with Te Matapihi, Community Housing Aotearoa, Te Puni Kōkiri and others to ensure potential applicants are aware of the ROI being open.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A memo on implementation matters, including operational guidance/principles on allowing updated price caps to be applied to current underwrite proposals in various states of negotiation or agreement, will be sent to Minister Woods by the end of June 2022.</li> </ul> Affordable Housing Fund The ROI is launching later than previously forecast. This will therefore have a flow on effect on dates. We now expect to open the Request for Proposals (RFP) in mid-September. This would close in early February 2023 with recommendations made to Ministers in March 2023. There will continue to be an ability to progress high quality proposals, provided earlier in the process, before all proposals are received. This may allow Ministers to make decisions on some proposals before March 2023.
MAIHI and Place-Based Work	Rotorua Place Based Partnership <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Rotorua Lakes Council (RLC) has had significant response from EHSNG motel operators/owners concerning resource consenting following the enforcement orders filed against nine operators in the Environment Court and letters to engage sent to another 40. 	manage any potential conflict with Urban Development is supported. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The NPS-HPL is seeking to protect highly productive land (HPL) for primary production purposes. However, it also recognises that some of this land is at the edge of major urban centers and may be required for future urban development. It provides criteria for when HPL land can be rezoned for urban development and the HPL protection does not apply in areas where urban development is anticipated (like Drury and Tauriko West).</li> <li>There are provisions to stop the subdivision of HPL into small land holdings so that the primary production land use remains economically viable. There is one technical issue in the drafting that could prevent the subdivision of HPL land even after it has been rezoned for urban development (in the District Plan) if the Regional Policy Statement mapping of HPL is not updated at the same time. This appears to be an unintended consequence of the drafting.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The NPS-HPL is expected to go to the DEV meeting on 27 July and then Cabinet to obtain approval for final version to come into force.</li> </ul>

Weekly Status Report

Week commencing 27 June 2022

1. Decisions sought this week

Decision/direction sought

Hon Dr Megan Woods – National Adaptation Plan

- Note that you are the Minister responsible for the Homes, Buildings and Places chapter and that background information was provided on 17 June 2022 in AMI21/22060860.
- Note that the National Adaptation Plan is being finalised for publication by 3 August 2022. To meet the statutory publication deadline, the final plan is due to be considered at DEV/ENV on 27/28 July and Cabinet on 1 August 2022. Officials will provide you with advice to support you at DEV as part of the Ministerial consultation which is expected between 1 - 14 July 2022.
- Note that you agreed to include seven actions led by Te Tūāpapa Kura Kāinga and one action led by Kāinga Ora in the draft National Adaptation Plan [refer BRF21/22101122]. Submissions received were widely supportive of the proposed actions with a focus on the need to clarify the scope of some actions and bring forward implementation.
- Note that officials propose changes to some of the action titles, descriptions and timeframes to address consultation feedback. These are summarised in Annex A.
- Agree to include the actions led by Te Tūāpapa Kura Kāinga and Kāinga Ora listed in Annex A in the final National Adaptation Plan.
- Note you will be updated on actions led by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment through the Building and Construction portfolio weekly report.
- Note that the Minister of Arts, Culture and Heritage is being briefed separately to seek agreement to additional actions led by the Ministry of Culture and Heritage to sit alongside the annexed actions.

Hon Dr Megan Woods
Minister of Housing
